

A Weekend of Catholic Faith Experience

“I’m not Catholic but I want to know more about the Catholic Church.”

“I’m attending RCIA and think that ARISE might be a good addition to the information I have already learned about the Catholic faith.”

“I was baptized Catholic but have joined another non-Catholic church. I want to know what I left behind in the Catholic Church.”

“I am Catholic but not currently attending Mass. I want to find out more about the Church and its treasury of spiritual truths.”

“I am proud to be a practicing Catholic but the more I learn about my Catholic faith, the more I realize I need to know more!”

If you can answer “YES” to any of the above, then ARISE is for you!

The late Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, “There are less than 100 people in the country who hate the Catholic Church but there are millions who hate what they think the Catholic Church to be!”

ARISE weekends are sponsored by the Catholic Cursillo Movement of South Mississippi and are open to all, including those living outside of South Mississippi. ARISE is conducted by a team of laypersons assisted by members of the clergy and provides information about the Catholic Faith and how Catholic laypersons live out their Catholic Faith. The weekend begins on Friday evening and ends on Sunday afternoon. Dress is casual, overnight accommodations for Friday and Saturday are included along with meals on Saturday and Sunday.

ARISE is totally funded through contributions from those who work and attend the weekends. The suggested donation to cover the cost of participation (lodging, meals and supplies) is $100. Donations received are a private matter between you and God. No one is pressured to make a donation and you should not hesitate to attend because of finances.
